Millie Reed

Reed joins Private Bank of Buckhead

Atlanta, March 24, 2009 – Private Bank of Buckhead announces the addition of Millie Reed, who joins the bank as a Personal Banker.

“Millie’s unmatched ‘people skills’ and history in banking make her a terrific fit for our team of seasoned professionals who provide a broad range of personalized services to our clients,” says Brent Adams, a senior vice president of Private Bank of Buckhead.

In addition to her work with the bank, Reed is an active Mom who volunteers with Whitefield Academy, a Mableton prep school where she conducts tours for prospective parents and serves on the acquisition committee of the school’s annual auction. When she’s not at the bank or spending time with her family, Millie can be found playing tennis or golf. She and her husband, two kids and two miniature daschunds reside in Buckhead.

“I enjoy meeting people, so working with a high-touch bank is a great fit for me,” Reed says. “Plus, I believe banks should be good stewards of the financial markets in which they serve and that’s well-synchronized to the belief systems of Private Bank of Buckhead.”

Private Bank of Buckhead (www.PrivateBankOfBuckhead.com) brings a private banking approach to all clients across all functions of the bank.
