Charlie Crawford joins Atlanta History Center board

Service to 84-year-old organization 'a natural fit'

Atlanta, February 16, 2010 – The Atlanta History Center recently added Charlie Crawford to its Board of Trustees for a two-year term. Crawford is chairman, president and CEO of the Private Bank of Buckhead.

“We’re lucky to have one of the country’s premier History Centers in our city, so I am honored to be a small part of its important work connecting Atlanta’s rich history with our daily lives, both at work and at play,” he says. “And, the fact that the Center’s main campus is in the heart of my home community of Buckhead makes my board service a natural.”

The Atlanta History Center is a non-profit organization, with a rich 84-year-old history. It is headquartered on 33 historic acres in the heart of Buckhead. The Board of Trustees of the History Center serves in the public interest. The Board acts as the ultimate governing authority for the History Center and is responsible for the formulation and maintenance of its general policies, standards, conditions and procedures.

In addition to the History Center (www.AtlantaHistoryCenter.com), Crawford is currently a director of the Buckhead Coalition, on the City of Atlanta Board of Ethics, and the boards of the Georgia Tennis Foundation, the Cherokee Town and Country Club, and the Atlanta Track Club. He also is currently serving as Assistant District Governor for Rotary District 6900 and is a past president of The Rotary Club of Buckhead.

Private Bank of Buckhead (www.PrivateBankOfBuckhead.com) brings a private banking approach to all clients across all functions of the bank.
