Dale Benefield joins Private Bank of Buckhead

Atlanta – Private Bank of Buckhead has named Dale Benefield Senior Vice President, Compliance and Operations. She is responsible for loan and deposit operations, Bank Secrecy Act and compliance.

“Dale has very deep compliance and operations experience with a number of Atlanta banks,” says Terry Freeman, chief operating officer and CFO of the bank, “and possesses a thorough understanding of how compliance fits in with our various business departments and their day-to-day and long-term decisions. And, in keeping with our strategy, Dale is a seasoned banking veteran.”

Benefield has 30-plus years of Atlanta-area banking experience, a significant portion of which focuses on compliance, operations and related issues. She previously served McIntosh Commercial Bank and Fidelity Bank, among others.

“Regulatory agencies have increased their compliance focus, and part of my role is to bring those evolving expectations to our entire team in plain language and in actionable ways,” Benefield says.

Away from work, she enjoys investing in and renovating residential real estate. Benefield also has snow skied 20 North American mountains, back-packed the Grand Canyon, and swum with sharks...eight miles out in the ocean. She and her husband David and their King Charles Cavalier Spaniel reside just South of Atlanta.
