McGuire joins board of Buckhead Business Association

Atlanta, January 4, 2010 – Private Bank of Buckhead’s Brian McGuire, who is vice president of Treasury Management Services for the bank, has been chosen to serve on the board of the Buckhead Business Association (BBA). Founded in 1951, BBA is one of the most widely recognized organizations for Buckhead. It promotes business and participation in the Buckhead community.

“Brian’s expanded role within the Buckhead Business Association is in keeping with our ongoing support of that organization and of the community in general,” says Charlie Crawford, president and CEO of Private Bank of Buckhead. “I am proud that Brian and the rest of our team take an active approach to community service.”

In his role as a vice president on the BBA board, McGuire serves as co-chair of Corporate Development. The non-profit Association, which is known as The Voice of Buckhead Business, includes entrepreneurs, small to large companies and individual members.

In addition to his work with the Buckhead Business Association, McGuire is active with Rotary International and is at work on a Professional MBA at Georgia State University. In 2009 he was named to the board of Community Health Charities of Georgia and to the Alumni Advisory Board of Holy Innocents’ Episcopal School.

Private Bank of Buckhead (www.PrivateBankOfBuckhead.com) brings a private banking approach to all clients across all functions of the bank.
