Teri Gann

Gann named to corporate leadership council

Atlanta, March 19, 2010 – Private Bank of Buckhead’s Teri Gann has been named to Fernbank Museum of Natural History’s Corporate Leadership Council (CLC). She was chosen earlier this year, along with 11 other leaders from Atlanta’s business and professional communities, to join 35 others who play the key role of ambassadors for the Museum.

“Part of our mission as a community bank is to give back through direct involvement with great institutions like Fernbank,” says Charlie Crawford, president and CEO of Private Bank of Buckhead. “We’re proud that Teri – one of our newest team members – has taken on this community service role.”

Teri, Vice President and Branch Manager for the bank, has been in banking for 26 years. In addition to her commitment to Fernbank, she has served on the board of the Better Business Bureau of Atlanta and Seven Stages Theatre, and volunteered with Hands On Atlanta, the United Way and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

“Fernbank Museum is fortunate to have Teri as a member of the CLC, and is excited about a long and mutually beneficial relationship with her and with the Private Bank of Buckhead,” says Fernbank Vice President Jim Breedlove. He says CLC members have been instrumental in bringing Fernbank (www.FernbankMuseum.org) new resources from their firms and the large network of business, professional and social leaders whom they represent.

Private Bank of Buckhead (www.PrivateBankOfBuckhead.com) brings a private banking approach to all clients across all functions of the bank.
