

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Business moves to Sandy Springs

The company will move its headquarters to Sandy Springs, Ga., in the near future. The move will allow the company to be closer to its customers and to take advantage of the state's economic incentives.

Bank progresses

Private Bank of Buckhead, which celebrated its first anniversary in December, announced increased loans, deposits and assets for 2007. Loans were up from $502,000 in 2006 to $27.3 million last year. Deposits increased from $1.7 million in 2006 to $24.8 million last year, and assets rose from $17.1 million to $41.2 million over the same period.

"We're pleased with the numbers in terms of loans, deposits and assets, and we will continue to grow while keeping growth balanced with quality and profitability," said Charles B. "Charlie" Crawford Jr., the bank's president and CEO.

Overseas Cycle

The company's overseas operations are expected to continue to grow in 2008. The company is currently in the process of expanding its presence in several key markets, and expects to see significant growth in the coming year.

The company's financial performance in 2007 was strong, with revenue up 15% from the previous year. The company is currently in the process of expanding its presence in several key markets, and expects to see significant growth in the coming year.

Top 100

The company's top 100 executives are expected to continue to drive the company's growth in 2008. The company is currently in the process of expanding its presence in several key markets, and expects to see significant growth in the coming year.

The company's financial performance in 2007 was strong, with revenue up 15% from the previous year. The company is currently in the process of expanding its presence in several key markets, and expects to see significant growth in the coming year.

Top 100

The company's top 100 executives are expected to continue to drive the company's growth in 2008. The company is currently in the process of expanding its presence in several key markets, and expects to see significant growth in the coming year.