Charlie Crawford elected to Atlanta Track Club board

Avid sports fan says it's another opportunity for community service

Atlanta, November 16, 2009 – The Atlanta Track Club recently added Charlie Crawford as a newly elected board member for 2009-2010. Crawford is chairman, president and CEO of the Private Bank of Buckhead.

“I’m a big fan of sports and fitness and the opportunities they create, especially through participative sports,” he says, “and running is accessible to so many people across a wide spectrum of interest and ability levels. My involvement with the Atlanta Track Club also is a great fit because of my firm commitment to community service. I’m honored to serve this great organization and in some small way promote one of the sports that has given me so much enjoyment.”

The Atlanta Track Club is a non-profit organization established to inspire and engage the community to achieve health and fitness through running. With more than 9,000 members, the Club is the second largest running organization in the United States. In addition to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution Peachtree Road Race – the largest running event in the US – and the Atlanta Marathon and Half Marathon, the Atlanta Track Club directs more than 25 running events per year.

In addition to the Track Club, Crawford is currently a director of the Buckhead Coalition, on the City of Atlanta Board of Ethics, and the boards of the Georgia Tennis Foundation and the Cherokee Town and Country Club. He also is currently serving as Assistant District Governor for Rotary District 6900 and is a past president of The Rotary Club of Buckhead.

Private Bank of Buckhead (www.PrivateBankOfBuckhead.com) brings a private banking approach to all clients across all functions of the bank.
