

CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

Buckhead Rotary Club names officers

Aadu Allpere is the newest president of the Buckhead Rotary Club.

Allpere, a retired Coca-Cola executive and now a Buckhead businessman, succeeds Charlie Crawford, president of the Private Bank of Buckhead, whose one-year term ended June 30.

Allpere leads a team of four club officers for the 2008-09 Rotary year. Means Davis is the new president-elect. Davis is a retired insurance executive as well as an accomplished sailor and sailing judge.

Alec Smythe, an independent marketing consultant, is the new secretary. Smythe served as senior vice president of product management for the CitiGroup's U.S. consumer bank marketing division,

Aadu Allpere

among other leading positions.

Phil Curtis is the new treasurer. He is a partner with Matteson Partners Executive Search Firm and began his career as a lawyer before becoming executive vice president of Coers & Steinemann, among other leading positions.

Charlie Crawford