Private Bank

The Private Bank of Buckhead recently announced the addition of Cindy Trahan, who joins the bank as executive assistant.

"Cindy brings 30-plus years of banking experience, which makes her a great match for our philosophy of serving our clients with a team of seasoned professionals," said President and CEO Charles B. "Charlie" Crawford Jr.

He notes that Trahan has worked in a broad range of banking units, most recently serving as executive assistant in the wealth management area of another Atlanta bank.
